Bauman L. Belden, Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,
Broadway, at 156th Street,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of 24th inst., with enclosure, received late last evening.

If permitted,- I will pay for the eight daler copper plate of Sweden, dated 1659,- $500.00- provided no objection is made by others who have subscribed toward its purchase. If objection is made,- then you may put me down for a contribution of $25.00.

Upon receiving notice from you that the coin is in possession of the Society, and that I will be permitted to make it the property of the Society,- I will send you my check for $500. with which the coin is to be purchased; it shall then become the property of the Society without further ado.

Sincerely yours,

Emerson McMillin

P.S. I will be out of the City tomorrow, but will be in this office Thursday morning. Kindly send mail to me at this office in the future. I live almost continuously at my country home. Seldom at my City residence.

Dear Sir:

I unexpectedly came into the office this afternoon and find your letter of the 29th inst., also photograph of the Copper Coin, for which I thank you.

I enclose herewith my check for Five Hundred ($500.) Dollars, with which to pay for the coin. I give the coin to the American Numismatic Society.

Very truly yours,

Emerson McMillin

P.S. I should like very much to get up to the Special Meeting on the 5th of May, but, unless compelled to, I do not stay in town over night, and I live too far in the country to come in to entertainments.

Emerson McMillin, Esq.

New York City

Dear Sir:

On December 9th there is to be sold in Philadelphia a very important collection of Indian Peace Medals. The collection now in the possession of our Society is a very remarkable one, but several of the gaps in it might be supplied from the pieces to be sold at Philadelphia if we had the means to purchase them. Among these, is one of the engraved medals of Washington and two varieties of the 'Happy While United' medals.

The exceptional nature of this opportunity is our only justification for appealing to you at this time; our scanty income for purchases for the present year has been exhausted. We have already had occasion to feel grateful for your support when a like opportunity presented itself, may we hope that our appeal to you at this time will receive your favorable consideration?

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary

Dear Mrs. McMillin:

Permit me on behalf of the Council of the American Numismatic Society, to assure you of their sincere sympathy upon the death of Mr. McMillin.

Mr. McMillin was elected Fellow of this Society in 1906 and made Benefactor in 1914. He has always been one of our loyal supporters, and with many other organizations in which he was interested, our Society will feel his loss.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary

Mrs. Emerson McMillin
